in a hopeless muddle. Foot-ball had just been decreed a thing of the past by President Butler, acting on authority given him by the University Council, and the student body was up in arms.

Arthur Aigeltinger, center of the 1995 team, was elected captain in defiance of the faculty decision on the gridiron game, and then teh students became fearful. Dr. Butler does not like to be trifled with, and when he metes out punishment it is usually very summary. It was decided by the players who had elected Aigeltinger that partily for his sake and partly for the sake of the game, it would be best to keep the matter a secret. Only two of the regular players were absent when Aigeltinger was elected. These were William Fisher, who had gone to his horie in North Carolina to recuperate, and Douglas S. Carter, who was lying in a private hospital suffering from an injury to his spine. Those who were present at the olction were John R. Fisher, captain last season and half-back; Arthur Aigeltinger, center; F. H. Davis and Thomas Boss, guards; F. H. Davis and Thomas Boss, guards; F. H. Davis and Thomas Boss, guards; F. H. Brost, left-end; E. T. Collins and W. Duden and D. H. Browne, tackles; H. B. Post, left-end; E. T. Collins and W. B. Donovan, quarterbacks; P. W. Von Saltzs, fullback, and D. H. Armstrong, half-back.

A question that is now troubling the minds of the Columbians is what the president of the University will do when he hears of the matter. Dr. Butler left list week for a vacation, taking a trip to Jamaica and Cuba. On his return it is expected that there will be trouble, as he in unwilling to admit that foot-ball over will again be played by Columbia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ALBANY, N. T., March 16.—Senator

Cassidy caused an amendment to be placed in the Cassidy-Lansing anti-betting bill io-day, so as to make a material modification in the penalty to be imposed for its violation. As the bill was first introduced, it provided for imprisonment pf from one to two years, with an alternative penalty of imprisonment and a line in addition of $2,000.

Mr. Miller's hill prohibiting the establishment of any more race bracks in Nassau county will be reported favorably from the Assembly Codes Committee to-night. It will not affect the operation of the Belmont Brack.

Looks Like Split, Giving Philadelphia and St. Louis Eastern and Western Events.

NEW YORK, March 16—Two national bowling tournaments next year with a roll-off in New York for the championships between the three leading competitors in the five and two men teams, and individual contests at St. Louis and Philaceiphia. This is a very feasible plan advocated as a solution of the bowling tournament problem now the cause of so much friction between the East and ing tournament problem now the cause of so much friction between the East and West.

There are good indications that unless Philadelphia secures the national tournament of the American Rawling Consgress in 1907 there will be a split between the East and West in the session of the congress that opens in Louisville next Monday, the tournament competitions beginning Saturday. Whether this sectional division will be on harmonious lines depends upon the temper of eastern delegates in the action of the congress over the bid to the made by St. Louis fon the tournament next year. The possibility of a serious split has caused the susgestion of the plan above mentioned.

The unexpected bid from St. Louis for the tournament after it had practically been pledged Philadelphia, came as a great surprise to local bowlers.

Because Philadelphia wanted the tournament next year, and as it was understood that Western bowlers, particularly those of Chicago, were holding out an olive branch to the New York Bowling Association, which was organized after the split at Buffalo four years ago, delegates to the local organization at a meeting held a few weeks ago voted to affiliate with the American Bowling Congress.

Athens.

The Pastlime A. C. "Clympic Games," to be held to-morrow night at Madison Square Garden, promises to be the biggest indoor meet of the season. The event will be practically an indoor A. A. U. championship meet, and will also serve as a final try-out for the American Olympic team. All the Eastern members of the team have entered, as well as Archle Hahn, one of the Wostern selections, who is now in New York, Hahn, W. A. Schick, W. D. Eaton, Harry Hillman, and Meyer Prinstein will appear in the 60 yards championship. J: PFSullivan, Harvey Cohn and Charley Bacon will be contenders in the 1.000 yards event for the national title: "Mike" Spring sind "Billy" Frank, the Marathon runners, with George Bonhag, will be the backmarkers in the 3 kilometre (1.7-5 miles) run; and Martin Sheridan, the all-around champion. "Jim" Mitchell and "Dick" Sheldon will try conclusions in the weight events.

Many-others, prominent in the athletic world, though not on the Athens team, will be soon in competition, such as Robertson, Northbridge and Christoffers, sprinters; Parsons and Sheppard in the 1.000 yards run; John Flauagan, John, Burke and Larry Fauerbach in the weights; Five teams have entered the one mile high schools relay championship, and the same number of teams will contest in the tug-of-war.

INTERNATIONAL RACES FOR NEGLECTED CUPS

Canadian and German Boats to Make Trial for Old

Trophies.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Still more international yacht racing is being arranged for this coming summer.
Two trophies that have lain idle for ranged for this coming summer.

Two trophies that have lain idle for several years are to be contested for. They are the Fisher Cup, which has been a yachting trophy of the Great Lakes for thirty-two years, and the Quincy Yacht Club Challenga Cup. The former is held by the Rochester Yacht Club, and the Toronto Yacht Club has challenged for it. The last race for it was in 300. The Manchester Yacht Club holds the challenge cup, and the Quincy (Mass.) Yacht Club has challenged to recover it. Charles F. Adams. 2d; has ordered a challenging boat.

The deed of gift of this cup has been revised. Under the old deed of trust a yacht could not exceed 21 feet in length, and there was no restriction as to the amount of sail that could be carried. Under the new deed, the messurement for racing will be length plus beam plus draught, and must not exceed 32 feet, with complete outfit on board ready for racing, but without crew. The rig is to be jib and mainsall, and the sail area is not to exceed 50 square feet, with complete outfit on board ready for racing, but without crew. The rig is to be jib and mainsall, and the sail area is not to exceed 50 square feet. This is according to, the rules of the German Yacht Racing Association, and the visiting German yachts will be invited to enter the match.

If the Germans who are to try for the Rosevelt Cup do enter the match.

If the Germans who are to try for the Rosevelt Cup do enter the match, will make two more interesting international contests for this year.

their intention of arriving in the city on time for practice work.

The majority of the players will be here by the fifth of the month, but a few will remain away until the tenth or fifteenti.

The cuts shown to-day are of some of the men who will be given an opportunity to show what they can do on the diamond. Among this lot are Sharp and Hicks, both infielders, whose homes are in Richmond.

Hicks will do the work at the second sack, and there are none better when he is in trim. And this season will find Hicks ready for the game. His recording League was about as good as any player found, and when he came to Richmond at the closing of the season he did excellent work on the diamond.

He is a heavy batter and goes after everything in the infield. They don't come too hot for him.

Sharp is the "man who says nothing," but "just saws wood." He can play infield or outfield, and there is little difference where you put him. At short or third he has demostrated his ability, and in center garden he pulled down some long files last season. He has a good whip, and an eye that does not fail him when the slab artist is injecting the kinks into the sphere.

Proud of His Men.

Proud of His Men.

The personnel of the Richmond team will measure up favorably with that of any team in the league, and Manager Shaffer is very proud of the players he has contracted for. He will have a staff of four pitchers and three catchers. There will be two or three utility men.

Barring accidents Richmond should begin the season with a string of victories to her credit.

Barring accidents Richmond should begin the season with a string of victories to her credit.

The season opens here on the 25th of April, and it is probable that Lynchburg will be the nine to go against Richmond. Portsmouth will likely open in Norfolk, and Danville will open in Roanoke,

This is, of course, not official, for the Schedule Committee has not as yet made arrangements for all of the games.

But there will be three games each week in Richmond. One weet the games will be on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and the following week will find the nines lined up against each other on the three closing days.

Letters received from the players state that each one is getting into condition for the work of the season and there is no discord or kicking among the lot.

Manager Shaffer is within the salary ilmit and intends to give the team that beats him a hard run for the money.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., March 16.—Reports that would not down were freely ports that would not down were freely circulated yesterday that there was a secret agreement between McGovern'and Nelson before they entered the ring. This, coupled with the almost lifeless and listless tactics of both boxers in the early rounds, gave support to the contention.

Manager Billy Nolan, however, nipned this in the bud. He left for New York last night with a certified check for shown in his wallet, which he will deposit with a newspaper which made the charges. Nolan said before leaving Philadelphia: "If the slightest council can be proven between my protego and McGovern, the $10,000 can be handed to any deserving charity that the Gotham newspaper miy elect. That is how sure we are of our position."

The Baltimore light-weight did not hesitate a moment. "Certainly I will accept the purse if the club will give me the privilege of percentary," said Gans. "Nelson is a wild swingst. I can beat these wild punchers in quick order. I am satisfied that I can out-box and out-punch the Dane, and that is all that is necessary. Endurance will not be necessary, because I think I can drop him in terrounds at least. Just as soon as he unrovers I will reach his jaw. It is all folly to think that he cannot be knocked out. Let me hit him on the right spot wild a short left or right hand joit and he will take the count sure. "Now, this man Nolan is a shrewd fellow, but he cannot make the public swallow Nelson as a worlds champion. He must beat me first. The bout between McGovern and myself was not a championship affair, and, furthermore, I was acting under orders. I am my own manager now and will deliver the goods properly, and no one knows it more than this same Nolan."
